Kelly Stowell Joins Accordia

FAIRFIELD, NJ: Accordia Realty Ventures, announced today that Kelly Stowell had joined the company as a Senior Property Manager. Kelly comes to Accordia from Mackenzie Management in Lutherville Maryland where she was Senior Asset manager responsible for the operation of an approximately 1,000,000 square foot commercial property portfolio which included office, flex and medical office space.

Kelly was a member of the Board of Directors of the Baltimore chapter of the Building Owners and Management Association ( BOMA), a member of the Maryland chapter of the US Green Building Council (USGBC) and is a LEED accredited professional

Her responsibilities at Accordia will include oversight of all management operations for Accordia's growing portfolio of commercial properties.

“As our company has grown, it has become more important that we have the in-house capability to professionally oversee both our internal management functions as well as our outsourced property management firms. We are fortunate to have found someone with Kelly's experience, skill sets and personality to fill this role.” commented Accordia principal Jason Bogart.

“Kelly has the same drive for excellence and hands on approach and commitment to tenant relations that have been the hallmark of our company.” added Accordia's Joe Romano
